

CYYAF Objectives 2011

Objective	Standard –if needed-are rules which are specific to this committee and are in addition to accepted legal requirements	Strategies-what actions will you take to achieve each objective	Action Plan-what steps will you take to implement the actions	Desired Outcomes-how will you measure that you have been successful	Monetary costs
Provide effective weekly Sunday School program for 150+ children and youth, nursery to grade 12	Any person working or volunteering with children or youth requires a police record check.	Focus on development of committed, caring and effective leaders. Create an atmosphere in which children and youth feel welcome. Foster meaningful learning.	Recruit, train, and supervise Sunday School teachers and helpers. Use effective faith-based curriculum. Keep close contact with children, youth and parents. Promote program in broader community. Establish and communicate clear schedule shared through emails, newsletter. Teachers Appreciation Breakfast.	Children and youth know they are loved by God. Children and youth feel welcome and at home at FirstMet. The faith and life questions of children and youth are honoured. Children, youth and Sunday School leaders all are learning and growing in their faith. Teachers and helpers are valued and encouraged.
Provide programs for youth grades 4 – 12.	Any person working or volunteering with youth requires a police record check.	Recruit, train, and supervise youth workers. Offer a variety of activities that engage youth and nurture their spirituality. Keep close contact with youth and parents.	Offer junior youth program every second Friday. Offer senior youth program once a month. Participate in events of the broader church. Offer Confirmation classes, including Confirmation Breakfast..	Youth feel at home and connected at FirstMet. Youth nurtured in their faith understanding and involvement in the church.. Youth workers encouraged and equipped, committed to their ministry here and growing in their faith.
Provide a variety of family and	Any person working or volunteering	Offer programs that are inclusive and timely. Give opportunities for	Annual Family Camp Monthly Family Pot-luck Supper Evening	A diverse range of families will be welcomed and find meaningful relationships intergenerational activities	with children or youth requires a police record check.	families to get to know one another in various settings.	A variety of intergenerational gatherings, often after 11 am worship. Turkey Dinner.	within the congregation.

CYYAF Objectives 2011

Provide family and intergenerational worship & learning opportunities	Any person working or volunteering with children or youth requires a police record check.	White Gift Service, Christmas Eve Family Service & 11 pm service Great Parade Service Children Sunday Service Children & Youth involvement in weekly worship. Maundy Thursday Supper & Worship Lenten World Development & Relief promotion Marriage Refresher Weekend. Meg Hickling Sexual Health Education for Families. Occasional workshops on parenting, etc Vacation Bible School
Provide opportunities for adults.		Young Adult gatherings. Mothers Morning Out. Dazzling Devoted Devas. Dec 6 Violence Against Women Service			